

RPF series • Fixed Connector Device

A fixed version floor or wall mounted single connector device, the RPF50 series is designed for applications requiring connector protection.

Mounting screws are provided for direct wood floor installation. Maintenance free installation is quick and easy.

RPF50F w/ female 3-pin XLR
RPF50M w/ male 3-pin XLR
RPF50Q w/ 1/4" TRS phone jack
RPF50G w/ CAT5

- Can be mounted in the floor or on a wall
- Sliding panel protects fixed connector (included) from debris
- Heavy 14 gauge construction withstands abuse from traffic and heavy loads
- Available with female XLR, male XLR, or 1/4" TRS
- Visually compatible with RP10
- Mounts on NEMA 1 gang box, 2"D

A&E specification

RPF50 series - Fixed Connector Device

RPF50 series shall measure 4.6"L x 2.85"W x 1.5 "D. Cover of unit shall be constructed of 14 gauge steel, shall have a ceramic plastic finish so as not to create specular light reflections, shall have an integral carpet trim ring having radiused corners and shall be able to support heavy loads (pianos, roadcases, etc.). Cover shall be equipped with a sliding panel to protect connector from dirt and debris. Unit shall have a fixed connector (XLR male, XLR female, or 1/4" TRS). Unit shall mount on standard NEMA 1 gang box. The Fixed Connector Device shall be Mystery Electronics RPF50 series.